Supplier Selection and Bidding

Integrys Energy Group's policy is to deal only with dependable and responsible suppliers and contractors and to pay a fair market price for the goods and services required. The company will consider qualified suppliers and contractors who wish to bid on company requirements. Some of the factors to be considered (whenever applicable) are:

- Financial responsibility
- Technical competence
- Production capacity
- Reasonable proximity
- Labor relations record
- Ability to provide parts and service
- Quality assurance
- Delivery and service performance

If you are interested in open bidding events for services or materials which Integrys Energy Group plans to purchase, information about your company is required prior to becoming a bidder for Integrys events. Register on our secure supplier site and submit the information requested. You will receive an e-mail with your user ID and password to access the system and participate in possible bidding activities.

Please Note: If you are an existing supplier to Integrys, do not follow the registration process above.
